The self-contained flat would be ideal for the extended family or even run as a Bed and Breakfast, it even has its own cellar!

And then there is the enormous shed for all tradespeople, tinkerers and car enthusiasts with its concrete floor, benches and a swing arm gantry for some serious lifting and workshop repairs. A set of stock yards is nearby. The land is situated on a corner having two road frontages which makes it versatile. Water is no problem with two dams, plenty of rainwater tank storage plus town water as well.

This versatile property has plenty of upside. With all its infrastructure it is priced well below replacement cost as the main home is in original condition so it will appeal to those looking to add value by installing new floor coverings and window furnishings, update the kitchen and
